6. Cr.No.01/RCA-CIU-HYD/2016, dated 19.01.2016, No.1/RCACIU/2016 dated 19.01.2016 – registered by ACB, A.P. Government after bifurcation.

6. Government, after careful examination of the matter and in compliance with the orders dt.20.01.2021 in I.A.No.1 in W.P.No.1374 of 2021 passed by the Hon'ble High Court of Andhra Pradesh in the reference 4th read above, accord sanction for payment of the amount due on encashment of Earned Leave to Sri M.Adishesu, Deputy Commissioner of Prohibition & Excise (Retd.), Guntur.

7. In the reference 5th read above, while enclosing the final orders dt.15.03.2021 in W.P.No.1374 of 2021 of the Hon'ble High Court, has requested the Govt., for its implementation. In the said W.P., the Hon'ble High Court has made the following orders:

This Court after considering the submissions made by both the learned counsels perused G.O.Rt.No.1097, dated 22.06.2000. As rightly pointed out by the learned counsel for the petitioner in that G.O. itself the Government considered the amounts that can be paid to the retired employee since no recoveries can be made from the amounts under Earned Leave and gratuity. In encashment of Earned Leave, the Government clearly held that the same can be with held if there is a possibility of some money becoming recovered from him on conclusion of the proceedings against him. As far as the retirement gratuity is concerned, similar matter was contemplated and ultimately it is concluded that claims up to 80% of the gratuity amount can be paid in contemplation of the final orders. Division Bench of this Court in W.P.No.30443 of 2016 also clearly held that there is no question of withholding the amount towards encashment of Earned Leave. In the case on hand, the matter pending before the Special Judge for SPE and ACB Cases, Vijayawada, relates to disproportionate assets. The same cannot be a ground for initiating any recovery proceedings. In that view of the matter, this Court is of the opinion that as per the directions in G.O.Rt.No.1097, dated 22.06.2000, the petitioner is entitled for encashment of Earned Leave and also 80% of the gratuity as prayed for in the Writ Petition. The stand taken by the Government is over ruled. The respondents are directed to forthwith process and pay the encashment of Earned Leave and 80% of the gratuity to the petitioner.

With the above observations, the writ petition is allowed. The entire exercise should be completed within four (04) Weekes from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. There shall be no order as to costs.

8. Government, after careful examination of the matter in detail and in order to implementation of the orders of the Hon'ble High Court dt.15.03.2021 and in terms of the proviso to Rule 52(1) (c) of the A.P. Revised Pension Rules, 1980, hereby sanction 80% of the eligible retirement gratuity to Sri M.Adishesu, Deputy Commissioner of Prohibition & Excise (Retd.), Guntur, without prejudice to the final orders to be issued in the disciplinary cases referred at para 5th above.

9. This orders does not requires the concurrence of the Finance Department.
